INSTRUCTIONS

The personal essay is an opportunity for you to convey to the Admissions Committee a view of the person who may become a fellow psychoanalyst. We do not wish to impose set parameters for the style you might use, but we encourage you to be autobiographical in your approach. Please include a description of your early family life, specific relational issues from this period that have influenced your development and character, and subsequent meaningful relationships up to the current time. Continue your essay by addressing the following series of questions:

WHY PSYCHOANALYSIS?

What has led you to your interest in psychoanalysis? Include specific experiences, relationships, and even struggles in your clinical work that have influenced your decision to pursue psychoanalytic training. What do you hope to gain from training, both personally and professionally? How do you hope training will change your work?

WHY NOW?

What brings you to pursue training at this particular time? Why do you believe this is the right time to begin? What difficulties and challenges do you anticipate? In what ways will you handle and address these challenges; what are the personal qualities which equip you to do so? Describe the current context of your life and how you feel training will fit into it.

WHY PCC?

What are the specific reasons you choose to apply to PCC? Why do you believe training at PCC is right for you?

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS

If you wish to provide further elaboration of elements of your history, professional or personal, or of your application, please incorporate these into your personal statement.

Have you ever had a license or certificate revoked? Yes_____ No_____

Have you ever been dismissed or suspended from any school? Yes_____ No_____

Have you ever been convicted of a felony? Yes_____ No_____

If you answered "yes" to any of the above, give details concerning those events on a separate sheet of paper.

PART VI

APPLICATION, RELEASE AND CONDUCT

A. I hereby make application for admission to the Training Institute of the Psychoanalytic Center of California. I grant the Admissions Committee full permission to correspond with former teachers, deans, and references regarding my knowledge, training, experience, and personality. To the best of my knowledge, the information I have provided in this APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION TO THE PSYCHOANALYTIC TRAINING INSTITUTE is true and complete.

B. I release the Psychoanalytic Center of California Institute and Society from all blame and liability in all circumstances including rejection of my application, and/or discontinuance of my training after it has commenced. It is understood that suitability and aptitude for psychoanalytic training cannot be fully determined during the Admissions process, and will be reassessed at regular intervals throughout the training program.

C. If accepted and enrolled as a Candidate in the Psychoanalytic Center of California Training Institute, I pledge to not represent myself as a practitioner of psychoanalysis until I am authorized to do so by the Education Committee of the Psychoanalytic Center. Annually, I will provide the PCC Administrative office with proof of my professional liability insurance coverage, and a current copy of the mental health license under which I practice. I do further understand that unethical or unprofessional conduct such as cheating, plagiarism, misrepresentation, or assault - either physical, verbal or sexual - constitutes cause for dismissal.

DISCLOSURE

D. I understand that the Certificate curricula of the Psychoanalytic Center of California Institute consist of four years of classes taken consecutively on a trimester system, two classes per 12-week trimester. Over the period of four years, Candidates complete at least 576 class hours or 48 trimester units. If working toward the Certificate in Child Psychoanalysis, Candidates take an additional 20 units. I have been provided the Catalog of the Psychoanalytic Center of California Institute, wherein are included descriptions of the Certificate programs, curricula, and fees.

E. I understand that student and other administrative files are maintained, and that administrative activities take place, at the PCC Administrative Office located at 3200 Motor Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90034; but that classes are conducted in the private offices of PCC faculty (an address/work telephone roster of faculty has been made available to me). I also understand that the Psychoanalytic Center of California is obligated to acquaint me with the PCC Administrative Facilities, and to make a representative instructor's office available for viewing, if requested by me, prior to my final acceptance of a place in the training program

F. I understand that the APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION TO THE PSYCHOANALYTIC TRAINING INSTITUTE becomes legally binding after the application has been considered and approved by the Admissions and Education Committees of the PCC and I have received written notice of same, and after I have confirmed/finalized in writing, under separate cover addressed to the PCC Administrative Office, my acceptance of a place in the training program, and after I have attended the first session of instruction. I understand that the Psychoanalytic Center of California retains the right to determine the number of persons necessary to constitute a matriculating class. In the event that a matriculating class is not constituted, no tuition, registration or dues will be retained by the Institute.

My signature below indicates that I have read, understood, and agreed to the terms contained in application items A through C – APPLICATION, RELEASE AND CONDUCT – and Application Items D through F – DISCLOSURE.
